Announcements

The following colleges will be visiting Decatur in November: Central Washington University on November 10th; University of Washington on November 12th at 1:15; UW Personal Essay Workshop on November 17th; The Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising on November 23rd; and the U.S. Marines ROTC Scholarship Presentation on November 24th. Sign up in the Career Center if you want to attend. The Admission visits will be ending soon. Don't wait to learn about your after high school educational options. Sign up today!

The November Scholarship Guide is now available in the Career Center. Get your copy today!

Attention all Juniors: Are you a good student who is active in extra-curricular activities at Decatur and in the community? If the answer is yes, then you should apply for the Masonic Outstanding Junior Award. Each year the Masonic's honor 5 males and 5 females from each of the area high schools as 'Outstanding Students of the Junior Class'. We at Decatur are searching for our top ten junior class representatives. If you are selected, this is an excellent award to list on your college, scholarship, or job applications. The top girl and boy from each high school receives a $500 savings bond. Applications are available in the Career Center.

Hello Lady Gators! Our girls basketball meeting for the upcoming season will be at 2:15 on November 9 in Portable 1. If you cannot attend, please see Coach Rawie. Thanks! Go Gators!

Do you like puzzles? Do you like ice cream? Then try the math problem of the week posted across from the Attendance Office. There is one problem for Freshmen and Sophomores and one for Juniors and Seniors. A drawing will be held from all correct entries for a free blizzard at Dairy Queen. You don't have to be a math wizard to try or to win. All entries are due by Friday at 2:15.

Any boys interested in turning out for the basketball team this year should attend the PreSeason Meeting on Monday, November 9, at 2:15pm in Room 309. See Coach Olson with any questions.

Reach, the Christian Club, meets Thursdays in Room 604, Mrs. Kormos's room, at 2:20. Make sure to be there!

SWEEP TIP: Remember that you only have one week to serve your detention before your time doubles. Detention is in Portable 1 (Mr. Rawie's room) and you must report to Detention by 2:15. So don't get swept or we will see you in Detention!

A reminder to all students: Gator-Aide Study Club meets after school in the Library every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday until 3:45. Tutors are available if needed, and all students are welcome to attend. A LATE BUS is now available for any students who would be in need of transportation home. More information is available in the Library after school.

Attention Students! This is a friendly reminder that you must carry your student ID card at all times or you will be SUBJECT TO DETENTION!
