AICE Diploma Program _____ *Cambridge Certificate Program _____

The AICE Diploma Program is designed for those students interested in a comprehensive program with an accelerated, international curriculum. They must take external examinations in six AICE level courses by the end of their senior year. These students anticipate fulfilling all the requirements for the AICE Diploma upon graduating.

The Cambridge Certificate Program is designed for those students interested in taking at least one Cambridge course each year. They may take the external examinations in the Cambridge courses at the end of each year and earn certificates of achievement.

*This choice may be changed at any time throughout the student's four years of high school.

Enrollment Contract

Program Requirements:

1. Cambridge students are required to take at least one Cambridge course in a sequence each year.
2. Cambridge students are expected to have high academic expectations, be self-motivated, and have good study habits.
3. Cambridge students must demonstrate a commitment to succeed in this rigorous program.

We, the undersigned, understand the expectations and requirements for the Cambridge Program. We request that all data in support of this student's application for the Cambridge Preparatory Academy be sent to the Cambridge Coordinator at Federal Way High School.
