

This is an exciting time as we begin the 2009-10 school year at Federal Way High School. One way you can stay involved with your student's life at the high school is to join PTSA. PTSA is a private, non-profit association that is an advocate for the health, welfare, safety and education of all children. By joining you help support programs such as Emergency Preparedness, Athletic and Academic Scholarships, the "Reflections" arts program and more. You will receive email reminders of important dates and events at the school if desired and it's an additional way to keep track of the many events in your child's life in high school. Joining PTSA does not mean you will have additional time commitments. However, there are lots of volunteer opportunities for those that wish to be even more involved.

Please fill out the form below and mail it with your check to the school address below marked attn: PTSA . If you choose not to join at this time please consider sending a donation to help support our programs. We do not do any large fundraisers and rely on donations to help support our activities. All donations are greatly appreciated.
