

Anxious about your preschooler entering kindergarten?

Want to prepare your child for success in kindergarten?

Want to support your preschooler with their literacy skills?

If you answered “yes” to one or all questions, then you may be interested in Green Gables new, weekly Preschool Literacy Support Program!

Sound interesting? Join us for our orientation kickoff on Friday, January 22nd, 2010!

Who: You and your preschooler

Where: Green Gables Library

When: Friday, January 22nd; 9-10am

Why: to kick off the new Green Gables Preschool Literacy Support Program

Cost: FREE!

Our kickoff will include:

- ❖ An information session with Mr. Wood, Green Gables Principal and Carrie Osterloh, Preschool Support Lead.
- ❖ Light snacks and refreshments
- ❖ Make-and-Take activity for kids
- ❖ Meet and greet time for parents
- ❖ Parent Input Survey
- ❖ Handouts to include a schedule of events and Green Gables Expectations
- ❖ Exploration time for kids
- ❖ A read aloud with our very own Christine Blanton, All Day Kindergarten teacher!
- ❖ A goodie bag to take home!

Any questions? Please feel free to email or call Carrie Osterloh at costerlo@fwps.org or 253-945-2741.

We will see you there!