

Directions: Using the information you learned about our objective, create a bubble map identifying the characteristics of comets, asteroids, and meteors. When you are done, write a summary on the back of this page.

Objective #1

Identify the main characteristics of comets, asteroids, and meteors including physical composition, size, and location in our solar system.

Directions: Using the information you learned about our objective, create a bubble map identifying the characteristics of comets, asteroids, and meteors. When you are done, write a summary on the back of this page.

Objective #1

Identify the main characteristics of comets, asteroids, and meteors including physical composition, size, and location in our solar system.

