

Vocabulary Questions

Find 3 synonyms and 1 antonym for each of the following words.

Write a sentence using each word.

Preceding

Earlier

Preface

Preamble

Lack of interest

Lethargy

Clement

Modest

Passive

Finding

Secretary

Sadness

Defiant

Compromise

Resolve

Vigorous

Listless

Condense

Extend

Imitation

Sharp

Overpowering

Intense

Detailed

long-lasting

Doze

Slumber

Yank

Types of tools

Furnace

Fake

Disconnection

Unit

Use your word with its synonyms to answer the following questions.

1. Which of these synonyms and antonyms might be used in a book or a type of published work?
2. Which of these words might describe someone who is sleeping?
3. Which words could be used to show embossing on a personal item?
4. What words would describe someone who is indifferent to an event?
5. Which words could be used to explain how people might behave in an argument?
6. What words might describe an organization or a group?
7. What words could be used to explain something that can withstand abuse?
8. Which words could be used in giving a detail description of a taste or smell?
9. What words might describe a former event?
10. Which words might describe something minute?
11. Which words could be used to describe how someone acted during a game?

12. What group of words might describe how to make a book or play longer/shorter?

13. Which group of words could describe a doctor's opinion?

14. What group of words could describe a person's feelings relaxed feelings about an issue?

15. What word would describe someone from an office?

16. Which words might describe someone's negative feelings about themselves?

17. What synonyms could best express types of fabric?